On Vanity Fair's 2013 International Best-Dressed List and designer to many top Wall Street financiers, celebrities, and social elite, Darren Henault founded his firm in 1997 when the musician Meat Loaf hired him to decorate a Manhattan duplex. Henault's rooms look like opulent film sets with intricate details meant to age gracefully. Henault attracts clients who embrace the adventurous side of design and consistently pushes them to explore design that is beyond their comfort zones.
